Vice President-Commonwealth Karate Federation.

Dear Karate Enthusiasts,

It is with immense pleasure and anticipation that I extend a warm greeting to all participants, coaches, officials, and spectators as we gear up for the 5th Budobas International Karate-Do Academy Championship January 2024 for Sub Juniors, Cadets, and Junior categories plus South Zone Referee Course. As the Mentor of Karate India Organization and an Executive Committee member of the Asian Karate Federation, it is truly an honour to be part of this significant event.

This championship stands as a testament to the continuous growth and dedication within the world of karate. The Sub Juniors, Cadets, and Juniors participating in this event are the future of our beloved martial art, and their commitment to excellence is commendable.

Scheduled to take place on the 19th, 20th and 21st of January 2024, this championship promises to be a platform where skill, discipline, and sportsmanship will take centre stage. It is not just a competition EDUCATIONAL EVENT; it is a celebration of the values that karate instills in us – respect, courage, and the pursuit of personal and collective growth.

To the coaches, your guidance is crucial in shaping these young talents into not just formidable athletes but also individuals of character. Your efforts are appreciated, and your influence extends far beyond the dojo.

To the officials and organizers, your meticulous planning and hard work ensure the smooth execution of this event. Your commitment to the sport is integral to its success, and I express my heartfelt gratitude for your contributions.

As we embark on this journey, let us remember that karate is not just a series of movements but a way of life. May the 5th Budobas International Karate-Do Championship be a harmonious blend of competition, camaraderie, and personal growth.

Wishing all participants, the best of luck, and to everyone involved, let us make this championship a memorable and uplifting experience.

Mr. Sanjeev Kumar Jangra
General Secretary - Karate India Organisation.

Dear Karate Enthusiasts, Referees, Coaches, Players,
Parents and Supporters,

As we prepare for the eminent 5th Budobas International Karate-Do Championship January 2024, it is with great pleasure and anticipation that we extend our warmest greetings to all participants in the Educational event in Sub-juniors, Cadets, and Junior categories.

This championship stands not only as a testament to your dedication but as a showcase of the values and skills that karate instills in each one of you. Your commitment to the art of karate exemplifies discipline, perseverance, and the pursuit of excellence.

Under the banner of the Karate India Organisation, this event embodies the spirit of unity, sportsmanship, and mutual respect. It's not just a competition; it's a celebration of your hard work, sacrifices, and passion for the martial arts.

To the athletes, seize this opportunity to exhibit the culmination of your training and the strength of your spirit. Beyond the medals and accolades, let this championship be a canvas where your dedication paints a picture of determination and resilience.

Coaches, your guidance and support have been instrumental in shaping these athletes. Your dedication to nurturing talent and fostering character is commendable and greatly appreciated.

Supporters, your unwavering encouragement fuels the enthusiasm of these competitors, creating an atmosphere of camaraderie and inspiration.

Together, on the 19th, 20th and 21st of January 2024, let us embrace the true essence of karate displaying not just skill but also sportsmanship, camaraderie, and unwavering passion.

Wishing all participants, the very best. May this championship be an experience that enriches your journey in karate and leaves you with memories to cherish.

Warm regards.

Competition organiser

Dear Karateka's and Supporters,

I am honoured to announce and invite you to highly anticipated 5th Budobas International Karate-Do Championship 20- 21 Jan 2024 for Sub Juniors, Cadets, and Junior categories.

Your journey to this championship reflects dedication, perseverance, and an unyielding spirit. As President of the Budobas International Karate-Do Academy, I praise each one of you for your unwavering commitment to the art of karate-do.

Remember, beyond the competition lies an opportunity to test your limits, to showcase your hard-earned skills, and to forge friendships that transcend rivalry.

This championship is not merely about winning, it's about the invaluable lessons learned, the growth achieved, and the resilience cultivated through the pursuit of excellence. Embrace every moment on the mats with passion and determination.

Your presence here signifies your courage to face challenges head-on and to emerge stronger, both in victory and in defeat. Let this championship be a stage where your years of training, sweat, and sacrifices culminate into performances that inspire. Strive for greatness, but also cherish the joy of participation, for it is in the journey that true champions are moulded.

Believe in your abilities, trust your training, and ignite the fire within you to unleash your full potential. Remember, it's not just about winning medals; it's about the character you exhibit, the sportsmanship you demonstrate, and the memories you create.

On the 19th South Zone Referee Course and KIO Referee exam, 20th and 21st of January 2024 competition, let us unite in the spirit of karate-do, showcasing not just our skills but our respect, humility, and unwavering passion for this martial art.

Best wishes to all participants. May your performances be a testament to your dedication and love for karate-do!
